Maryland an Old State

"Maryland, My Maryland!" was one of the thirteen original states. In 1632 Cecilius Calvert, second Lord Baltimore, received from Charles I a charter conferring on him possession of the territory now forming the states of Maryland and Delaware. Thus he became a sort of feudal lord, in supreme authority over the colony. Maryland had a long list of proprietary and royal governors before it was organized as a state in 1777.

Bobby's Suggestion.

Bob was out visiting his aunt at a lake with his grandma. One evening he suddenly decided that he wanted to go home to mother. His grandma told him there were no trains and he couldn't possibly go that night. He said: "Well, grandma, can't you put me in a box and send me parcel post?"

Extraordinary!

When little Junior saw six jet black baby kittens the other day, he was so surprised to see them exactly alike, he said, "Oh, mother, come and look; why each one is a twin."

Mid-Month List of Columbia Records

Jolson's "Swanee" Whistling Song

At Jolson, exclusive Columbia artist, not only sings but melodiously whistles this song of longing for the South, his latest Sinbad hit. Coupled with "My Gal," sung by Frank Crumit, new exclusive Columbia tenor.

"Big 6" Saxophones Buddha-Dardanella
The Columbia Saxophone Sextette plays this rollicking, rhythmic record of the "Buddha-Dardanella" fox-trot, punctuated by the popping of the big brass saxophone, which sounds just like a kettle-drum. Coupled with "Lincolnton Nights," a novel one-step by these exclusive Columbia artists.

Bert Williams Has the Blues
"I'm Sorry I Ain't Got It, You Could Have It If I Had It" is the answer this exclusive Columbia artist always gives in this side-splitting song of the "Blues."

"Whatever I have tried to do in life, I have tried to do well; whatever I have devoted myself to, I have devoted myself to completely; in great aims and in small, I have always been thoroughly in earnest."

--- very in earnest

THIS store can express its own ideals in those words of Charles Dickens, the great English novelist. Because, in our aim to render a worthy and superior clothes-service to men and young men, we devote ourselves to that aim completely.

In fact, we are as thoroughly in earnest in the selling of good clothes as the House of Kuppenheimer is in making them.

Classic No. 9—Buttons on the sleeves of men's coats date back to the Seventeenth Century. In those days the buttons were sewed on horizontally, while today they are placed in a vertical row.
